

Jason R. Clark C.F.E.I.

Technician

JClark@haagglobal.com

-
- Based in Sugar Land, Texas since February 2000
 - Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator since March 2002
 - Certified Infrared Thermographer (Level 1) since January 2006
 - Certified Infrared Thermographer (Level 2) since May 2019
 - Certified Building Science Thermographer since December 2007
 - Haag Certified Commercial/Residential Roof Inspector since September 2007
 - NCCCO Certified Rigger & Signal Person since January 2012
 - Construction and demonstration of detailed scaled courtroom exhibits, models and displays
 - Perform laboratory and field testing/analysis to aid staff engineers with their current assignments.
 - Assist engineers with field evaluations of structure related failure and damage assessments, geotechnical evaluations, roofing systems, mechanical and material failures, fire investigations, building cladding systems, moisture ingress issues and more.
 - Production of detailed written reports for completed assignments.
 - Retrieve and maintain records of evidence samples from various jobsites.
 - Maintain shop, lab and office equipment at the Houston (Sugar Land) location.
 - Member of:
 - National Association of Fire Investigators (NAFI)
 - National Fire Protection Association (NFPA)